

MAN WHO GAVE UP GUNMEN IS FREED, IN TERROR OF LIFE

Betrayer of "Lefty Louis" and
"Gyp the Blood" Fears
Death as a "Squealer."

Because he furnished detectives the information which led to the capture of "Lefty Louis" and "Gyp the Blood," two of the four gunmen now in the death chamber at Sing Sing with Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, Dave Gordon, sneak thief and accomplished pickpocket, was given his freedom to-day by Judge Rosinsky in the Court of General Sessions.

"I would be safer in jail," Gordon told Detective "Mike" Myers, "than at liberty. I know I am a marked man and it is only a question of time when they will get me. Some day they'll find me lying dead with a bullet through my back. That's the way the gang treat squealers."

The fact that Gordon had "turned up" "Lefty Louis" and "Gyp the Blood" to the police was made known to Judge Rosinsky when Gordon, two weeks ago, pleaded guilty to an indictment filed last August, charging him with stealing a pocket book containing six dollars from Mrs. Louise Siede of No. 601 Monroe avenue, Brooklyn, in the Fourteenth street subway station.

When Gordon was arraigned to-day Judge Rosinsky had before him a letter from "Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty asking that clemency be extended to the pickpocket on the ground that his services to the police in a recent criminal investigation had been of great benefit."

"I am going to give you your liberty," Judge Rosinsky said to Gordon, "but I want to impress upon you that you are not privileged by any means, because of your services to the police, to go forth and prey upon the public. You no doubt rendered a great public service in your way and it is only just that, though you are, you should be rewarded."

Outside the court room door, Gordon, surrounded by a number of detectives, murmured his release.

"I suppose," he said, "that it is a case of dead give me for me. I may as well take the river for mine at once. Not that I am a afraid of any of those guys, for I will not let any of them face to face any time. But you can never tell how they will get you. I can't leave New York, for my folks are here, and I Don't think I will be safe any place I might go. It is simply a case of wait for mine. I am game, but I think I would have been better off in prison."
